

HEART TROUBLE CLAIMS ATTORNEY C. J. MURPHY

Lecturer at Georgetown University
Law School for Many Years.

Charles J. Murphy, prominent Washington attorney and a member of the faculty of Georgetown University Law School, died at Jessup, Md., his summer home, Sunday. Death was caused by heart trouble. His home here is at 1515 Kalorama road. Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the Washington Chapel, Georgetown University, in charge of Rev. J. B. Creeden, S. J. Members of Mr. Murphy's class at Georgetown and of the present law school class have been invited to attend the services. Interment will be at Mount Olivet cemetery. Honorary pallbearers will be E. J. Stebbins, George E. Harlan, George E. Harlan, Frank Henry, H. R. Gower, John J. Hamilton, R. Ross Perry, Henry S. Hon. L. J. Costigan, J. D. Sullivan, D. W. O'Donoghue, Hugh Fagan, Barry Mohun and Capt. Charles Roach. Mr. Murphy was born in Philadelphia forty-nine years ago, the son of James J. Murphy, an official reporter in the Senate, who died in 1871. He had practiced law in Washington since 1892 and was graduated from Georgetown Law School and Seaton Hall College. He had been a member of the faculty of Georgetown Law School for many years.

OUTING AT CHESAPEAKE.

American Mechanics Plan Many Athletic Contests at Beach.

Andrew Jackson and Star Spangled Banner Councils, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, and Goodwill Council, No. 15, Daughters of American Mechanics, will hold their annual excursions at Chesapeake Beach tomorrow.

Sports, including races for fat, lean, short and tall excursionists, have been arranged by Maurice Peabody, chairman of the athletic committee; C. B. Webb, past national councilor, and W. A. Church of Indiana, past state councilor.

The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of T. E. Skinner, past national representative, chairman; Charles W. Magill, national representative, secretary; Lewis D. Watts, past councilor, treasurer; Mr. Peabody, William H. Kendrick, G. M. Landis, P. M. Urick, Harry Rollinson and P. H. Brington.

Miss Tawney Apple has the niftiest eyebrows in town. She comes by 'em honestly as her father used to be a carriage stripper.

A picture of the first auto is allus interestin' on account of the stiff hat on the man at the wheel.

The Pelican

Some pelicans around me sail, as I wind up my lyre, that I may earn a slice of kale to buy a rubber tire. The pelican is most absurd, it has no warbling skill; it is a bonehead sort of bird that largely runs to bill. It catches fish before my door, by every artful means, instead of going to the store and buying canned sardines. It hangs around in my front yard, close by its feeding place, and doubtless thinks an old fat bard should sing its charm and grace. I've witnessed many tinhorn fowls in my long, sad career; I've gazed on buzzards, crows and owls in countries far and near; I've looked on roosters large and small, on mudhens and such things; the pelican out-classes all for homeliness, by jings. And yet it thinks it's pretty fine, as graceful as a bride; it stands before this hut of mine and seems to point with pride. Along the beach, and to and fro, I watch its vain parades; as silly as an ancient beau who ogles blooming maids. It thinks it is a shining star, pure radiance to spill; but, like the chaps who fix my car, it mostly runs to bill.

COMMUTERS PROTEST.

Demur to Alleged Fare Practice of
W. B. & A. in D. C.

Protest against the alleged practice of the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Electric Railroad Company in collecting a cash fare within the District of Columbia on its cars from holders of commutation books has been made to the Interstate Commerce Commission by the W. B. & A. Commuters' Club of Seabrook, Md.

In the protest the club claims the road violates the interstate commerce law by collecting fares within the District on commutation books. The club further believes that an amount of $100,000 in liberty bonds, which, it says, was listed in the last annual report of the railroad company as assets, should be added to its corporate surplus of $423,074.98, making the surplus $523,229.98.

The people of the United States are buying silk manufactures at the rate of more than $1,000,000,000 a year.

THERE is no such thing as "luck" in baking when you rely upon Washington Flour.

AND it doesn't make any difference what you are baking—bread, biscuits, cake, pastry—Washington Flour is best for all purposes. A special blend.

Your grocer sells it.
Your neighbors use it.
Your townsmen make it.
